"Birth certificates prove you were born, death certificates prove you died, but scrapbooks prove you have really lived!"

Welcome Spring!! I know you can hardly tell, but we are being optimistic at Scrap Inn Jammies! This weather is not going to drag us down. We have lots of dates and news to share with our great customers but most important is the fact that our online store is now up and running. Amanda is still entering items everyday but it is awesome. Check it out! There is the same product we carry, with a few different lines carried only by our online store. As an incentive to you, we are offering our first 100 customers free shipping. Scrap Inn Jammies are excited to fill your orders whether it is from the store or online. If you would prefer to order online but pick up at the store there will be no shipping charged. Also we will be keeping our news and events current online so if you happen to delete this message (shame on you) you know where you can find it www.scrapinnjammies.com
